

CLASS OF 1920

The seven members of the 1920 Poquoson High School graduating class are shown here in their senior picture.

It allows us to take a look back to the era immediately following the end of the first World War.

Spats, wrapped leggings, ties, and ankle-length dresses, contrast sharply with the styles of our modern-day graduating seniors.

Janie Bunting, now Janie Bunting Spain, submitted the picture to share with our readers.

All members of the class, except Ms. Spain, went on to teach school. Forrest became superintendent of schools in Gloucester and Mathews. Cox was superintendent of a Princess Anne school. He has a school named in his honor.

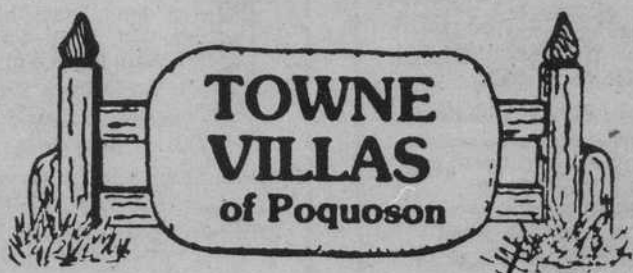

Ms. Spain attended William and Mary college and retired from NASA.
